MORNING TEA AT CASINO

From the Presidents chair

After a shaky start , entries arrived for our long awaited post Covid rally and what a rally it was. It was great to see friends and catch up, but there were a few new faces that quickly joined and I felt that I had known them for years.

This rally, thought smaller than in the past, was by far the friendliest. The Thursday afternoon and Friday morning rides were well attended with self marshalling in place all arrived home.

Friday night meet and greet at the old camp kitchen saw everyone get in with BBQ, sausages, chicken & beef rissoles supplied by Reflections Holiday Park with onions and coldslaw, everyone enjoyed chatting over a meal and a drink or two. I wish to thank our wonderful members and visitors who assisted with the cooking and the clean up. It was lovely to see everyone enjoying themselves and as the night lengthened many were reluctant to end this great time.

I wish to thank all members who assisted with the rally but some special thanks are required –

*Peter H for coordination of rally entries

*Tony H for his efforts in finding our lunch stop at Coraki and his ongoing work at the rally.

*Peter L for the great rally routes and organising marshalling.

*David, Carole, John, Judy and Marina for set up & clean up of our great morning tea at Casino tourist information centre.

*Michael S for the collection of raffle prizes & for running raffle Saturday Night.

*Cooks who supplied sweets & treats morning tea

*Marshals who guided riders around our lovely area Friday , Saturday and Sunday

*Doug & Helen H for their support and the many things they assisted with throughout the weekend

*Jim & Jenny B Shannons Insurance sponsor rep

To all visitors & members who gathered for a weekend of riding, chatting and fun, a great time was had by all., Some of our visitors stayed on and we went out for dinner and a great time on Sunday night.

Christmas Party & Rego day are set down for the last two Sundays in November please put 20th & 27th on your calendar for these two club events. Organisations of these two events are being planned.

The November Rego day is a big one and there will be morning tea & lunch Supplied

Keep upright & enjoy your riding

GENERAL BUSINESS.

< Peter Lake informed members that the Library has received a new book, donated by Frank Widdows

The book being "No room for Watermelons" by Ron & Lyne Fellowers, the members thanked Frank.

The library has now over 300 books

< Ian McCormack told members that the last Wednesday ride had called into Rocky creek designs and they were up and running , easy to see what they have when you check out their web site .

Ian also commented that he and some other club members had recently attended Stinkwheel Rally in Qld, saying it cost nothing to go on, Ian asked if our club could do the same, ie use all club funds to have a similar 'no charge' for Our Rally and other events, general discussion about this followed. Comments were Qld Rallies never charged entry fees but nothing was ever given to visitors , our Rally is set up to run cost neutral, a committee should be set up to review rally when finished,

MW advised members that the way the club finances are set up, account wise, we are not able to use the Working Accounts for/on our members or for things like our rally due to fair trading regulations & Taxation reasons, {we would have to pay tax if it was not like this}. MW commented that the QLD fair trading rules maybe different from NSW. This is why he Social Fund account was set up separately so funds can be used for the clubs social events.

Our Rally is set up to run cost neutral.

<Peter Harvey spoke on some of his ideas for the club going forward and getting members involved, 4 rego days. He said he'll be putting forward some motions at AGM.

RIDE REPORTS — 14th August Peter Lake - Ride to Kyogle lots of starters but ended up in 2 groups somehow

UPCOMING Sunday - club rally

MEETING CLOSED at 8. 45 pm

NRCMCC 2022 RALLY After two years without a rally, the NRCMCC again hosted a rally for classic bike enthusiasts and again, our 2022 rally was based in the lovely coastal village of Evans Head. We welcomed back members from our club as well as people from as far away as Newcastle, Inverell, Coffs, Ipswich and Brisbane and many were familiar faces and friends that make our rally so enjoyable. There was a shake down ride on Friday for those who wanted a ride but Saturday was the main day. It dawned with clear skies and almost perfect riding weather, yes! It's always warms the heart to see the wide variety of classic and veteran bikes that attend our rally & it makes me smile to see, hear and smell the old bikes as they start and run out of town. Kick starts, decompression leavers, two stroke oil smoke, hand gear change, hand signals, single seats, girder forks, the sound of big singles droning along. All the things that makes us revisit days of old, I love it.

I don't know how they do it but our rally committee managed to find some roads that I have never been on before for the Saturday ride towards Casino where we had our first stop for morning tea. Try as I did to sample one of everything on the table, the vast array of home made sweets and treats made by the ladies of our club was too much so I had to settle for a selection (plate full) of delicious cakes and slices to have with my cup of tea. Back on the bikes for a scenic ride to Coraki where we stopped again for lunch and the judging of the visitors bikes. We all enjoyed a nice selection of sandwiches, endless finder food and great hospitality at the historic Coraki Hotel until we couldn't fit any more food in so back on the bikes for a leisurely ride back to Evans to end the day.

Most had a little rest before dinner at the Evans Head Bowlo on the Saturday night where we all enjoyed the Chinese buffet at the presentation dinner. Here our visitors were presented with their trophies for their immaculate classic and vintage bikes and we sent most people home with a prize from the raffle, as not only did we have a great selection of bike related goodies, Pegasus Screen Printers at Lismore were generous enough to supply us with over 40 Mick Doohan tee-shirts. I must give a special mention to all of our sponsors (see adverts in our magazine) who generously supplied raffle prizes for our rally this year, especially as most are still recovering after the recent floods. A massive thank you to all.

Sunday was another perfect day and Peter lead the group on a smaller Sunday run to finish off a great weekend. So to all those who travelled, cooked, marshalled, rode, eat, laughed, donated and/or attended, thank you for making our 2022 annual rally another success.

By Michael Smith.

The Sunraysia Safari

The Sunraysia Safari was held in the Wentworth area in SW NSW in September and I was fortunate enough to attend as a medic. Like many other events, the Sunraysia Safari had been postponed for two years due to COVID but Troy was able to resurrect and run the event again this year after a few years hiatus.

The Sunraysia is a dirt rally that is run on dirt roads and tracks that most of us wouldn't recognise as a road at all. Most were in fact farm tracks on private property that we would expect to see a tractor or side by side putting along, like once or twice a year. Due to El Nina however, this year's rally routes have been transformed into a green landscape with the vegetation so thick in places that the track was hard to find and the navigation is all done blindly only using pace notes and at speed. Although the categories included rally cars, 4x4's, buggies and quads, it was the bikes that continued to amaze me and many others.

Bikes are cheap to buy, cheap to set up and cheap to run but astonishingly they do it all by themselves. There is no comfortable race seat, no dust filtration, no sat nav, no co-driver to navigate or call pace notes, no spare tyres or tools, just a rider and a hand scroll to load your paper pace notes onto the night before, a hand full of zip ties as a tool kit and comparatively thin protective clothing to assist if you do come off. Just think of Toby Price in the Dakar rally, truly amazing! And the race stages are not a few Kms around a designated track, oh no, the shortest stage was 34kms and the longest was 230kms, so that's 230 kms on full race throttle on unfamiliar dirt tracks for hour after hour. The 230km stage was so long that it had to have a fuel stop half way through.

My role was as a medic in an MIV (Medical Intervention Vehicle). We provide medical assistance in the event of a crash and our challenge was to be placed in strategic locations to be able to cover the stages and respond with the minimum of delay. We utilised 3 MIV's and a helicopter to help achieve this as the closest hospital was sometimes 300 kms away from the incident site. It can still take us half an hour to reach some areas, even in the helicopter.

Anyway, hats off to the guys on the bikes who get hot, wet, dusty and dirty for hours on end, day after day. They read the tracks, scroll the pace notes, dodge rocks, branches, mud, puddles, bull dust and the odd animal and end the day with a smile on their faces. They return to the rally HQ at days end, do their repairs & maintenance on their bikes, grab a bite to eat and climb into their swag to grab a few hours sleep before they do it all again the next day. I am truly impressed by their resilience, stamina and courage.

By Michael Smith.
